

Creating Opportunities for Members Together!

Dear AGC of Kentucky Member,

I am pleased to announce that McGraw-Hill Construction and AGC of Kentucky, Inc. have entered into an agreement to provide you access to McGraw-Hill Construction's industry – leading business solutions, including access to:

- Construction project opportunities tracked by the Dodge Project Center
- Online document management through Project Document Manager
- Market intelligence with MHC's comprehensive Research & Analytics
- Extensive MHC print, online & event media reach, to build your company's market presence & identity

It is exciting to bring this new and exclusive "Market Builders" program to you. I am very confident that this will add value to our collective efforts to grow your businesses and markets, particularly in tough economic times. We should all look forward to many successes for our members, as a result of capitalizing upon these new sources of information, tools and intelligence.

Be sure to access the McGraw-Hill Construction and AGC of Kentucky, Inc. "Market Builders" site and see project opportunities, as well as, other exclusive programs, at (www.agcky.org).

Thank You,

Richard Vincent
Executive Vice President
AGC of Kentucky, Inc.
