

Learn More Now!

Urban Design: Multi-Family Housing meets the streets.

Get ahead of the spec! Get architects to design with your products in mind ... with your ads in July's Architectural Record.

Architectural Record's July issue brings the latest, and most innovative projects, products and unique solutions to the forefront of the design community.

July coverage includes:

- Multi-Family Housing – Record presents a portfolio, both in print and online, of the most far-forward thinking in multi-family design today, including:
 - Formosa Multifamily housing, LA (Architects: LOHA)
 - Yale Steam Laundry, D.C. (Architect: John Ronin)
 - 60 Richmond Coop, Toronto (Architects: Teeple)
- Project Portfolio – The July issue features museums that are works of art unto themselves, available In Print and Online.
- South Africa Stadiums – A virtual tour of South Africa's stadiums where there's much more than just the frenzy of World Cup Soccer at play.

Build Greater Profits! Reach, Teach & Impact Architects and Specifiers in our CEU Courses.

Special Continuing Education Sponsorship Opportunities

Innovations & Trends in Energy Efficient Kitchen & Bath Products • Ad close: March 15

Reserve Your Space Today.

Reach 110,000+ architects and specifiers in print and 190,000+ online* in the most widely read architecture magazine and web site and e-newsletter. The latest independent research shows that 99% of architects know of Architectural Record and have looked through at least 3 of the last 4 issues, while 70% (unaided) say that Record is an important source for their work.

* Sources: June 2009 ABC Statement, Web Trends, Jan-June, 2009  Kadence Research Study, 2010. Ask your MHC Account Representative to show you the study!

For more information, contact your McGraw-Hill Construction Account Manager or email mhcmmedia@mcgraw-hill.com.